What we do for job-seekers

PR agent

JoinUp allows you to upload your resume and market yourself to thousands of recruiters and employers who are looking for staff. You will receive calls about jobs you might not have known about, from employers who might not have known to contact you.

JoinUp gives you the chance to review opportunities as they come along, whether you're employed, or not.

Career management

JoinUp helps you manage and advance your career. JoinUp also makes it easy to send your resume to anyone for review. Once your information is in JoinUp you need only keep it up to date.

Job board

JoinUp also has a growing job board. When a person posts a job ad and you have your resume on JoinUp you will automatically be suggested.

Blogs

JoinUp offers blogs for users as a way to present your experience more fully to prospective employers. Your blog can work in combination with your resume to provide more personal information to recruiters and employers. Your JoinUp blog can be used by you like a "career diary" or to present employment reviews or written references.

Networking

You can use the JoinUp service to interact with other users, and with our new functionality due for release soon, to interact with recruiters and employers. Networking is the number one way to get a job. Creating links that result in a face to face meeting will always have value.

We want JoinUp to make a difference to your career no matter what phase you are in, so take the time to put your details on JoinUp and let the career opportunities find you.
